

July 22 Moscow hosted a charity fair in the Vorontsov Park. Scouts collected 58535 rubles (£690) for the fund “Give Life” for children with cancer and gemological diseases. Thanks to the collaboration with the park “Manor Vorontsovo who provided a platform for the event; CRC “Meridian” who sent information about the Fair to the residents of the district. Scout groups held a variety of play-groups and workshops, they also brought gifts and crafts for the fair.

A major event in the programme in Moscow was also the wettest weather in history dzhamboriysky parade.

Under the harmonious rhythm of the Scouts band and drummers everyone taking part stood their part in the pouring rain on the Poklonnaya Hill laying flowers at the monuments to the war and also the Eternal Flame.